ORDER REOPENING CASE

On January 11, 2021, the United States Trustee filed the Motion to Reopen (the “Motion”) [Dkt. No. 23] requesting that the Court enter an order reopening the case of Dora Marie Hendrix. The United States Trustee had learned that Ms. Hendrix is entitled to a personal injury award in connection with a product liability claim. The United States Trustee believes the award is property of the estate and that administration of the asset may result in a meaningful distribution to unsecured creditors.

The Motion initially came before the Court on January 25, 2021, and at that time Ms. Hendrix and her attorney appeared at the telephonic hearing. The parties agreed to continue the matter to February 8, 2021, so they can communicate about the relief requested in the Motion.

On February 8, 2021, the Motion again came before the Court for a telephonic hearing. Present for the telephonic hearing were David S. Weidenbaum, counsel for the United States Trustee, and Camio Robinson, counsel for Ms. Hendrix. During the calendar call, Ms. Robinson announced that Ms. Hendrix did not oppose the relief requested in the Motion. The Court, having considered the matter and the record in the case, finds sufficient cause to grant the unopposed Motion. Accordingly, it is

ORDERED that the Motion to Reopen is GRANTED; and it is FURTHER ORDERED that the United States Trustee shall appoint a trustee to serve in this case.
